- Produced and directed several short films, including one for Amnesty International Canada.

Workshop Facilitator

Treaty Workshops | Sarnia, ON

October 2017 – June 2019

- Designed and conducted popular training workshops about treaties for school boards, cultural institutions, and First Nations, in partnership with historian and author David D. Plain from the Aamjiwnaang First Nation.
- Focused on topics such as wampum agreements, cession treaties, the Indian Act, and reconciliation.
- Presented to audiences using oral history, slides, live digital mapping, videos, and interactive activities.
- Responsible for all marketing, sales, coordinating A/V needs, designing visuals, and building slide decks.

Lead Researcher

Chippewas of Kettle & Stony Point First Nation | Lambton Shores, ON

January 2019 – May 2019

- Traditional archival research and digital mapping for the Clench Defalcation Claim.
- On-site support for Chief & Council during federal arbitration hearings with the Aamjiwnaang First Nation.

Graduate Research Assistant

Public Visualization Lab, OCAD University | Toronto, ON

December 2015 – June 2018

- Developed leading-edge data visualization projects by collaborating with a design team.
- Designs ranged from a locative storytelling platform for mobile and a platform utilizing machine learning to an interactive treaty map and physical walks featuring Indigenous place names in downtown Toronto.

Exhibition Coordinator

Digital Futures Program, OCAD University | Toronto, ON

February 2017 – May 2017

- Organized a successful graduate thesis exhibition at the Open Gallery, including development of the show theme and branding, securing of sponsorships, signing of contracts, printing of marketing materials, planning of gallery installs with exhibitors, and synchronization of all elements to coincide with the opening night event.

Graduate Research Assistant

Visual Analytics Lab, OCAD University | Toronto, ON

August 2015 – January 2017

- Coordinated a highly successful interactive exhibition of the CBC Newsworld Holodeck for the 2015 Scotiabank Nuit Blanche, which saw lineups out the door of the Open Gallery until after 5 a.m.
- Employed user-centred, responsive and inclusive design approaches to assist with the creation, implementation, and user testing of the Lab's innovative digital media projects.
- Presented, pitched and demonstrated Lab projects for business partners (e.g. GestureTek), government (e.g. Premier of Ontario), and cultural institutions (e.g. Royal Ontario Museum).
- Performed effective Research Data Management and knowledge transfer between team members.

SELECTED PROJECTS

The Ipperwash Inquiry (Docu-Series)

Producer | Researcher | Writer | Camera, Monica Virtue Productions | Lambton Shores, ON

- Producing, researching, and writing a complex “true crime” documentary series about the Ipperwash Inquiry.
- Sourced highly sensitive audio/visual exhibits, transcripts, stock footage, photographs, and documents.
- Managed crew and equipment, and operated camera for 100+ hours of interviews and cinema vérité footage.

A Water Story (360 Documentary)

Producer | Editor, Public Visualization Lab, OCAD University | Toronto, ON

January 2018 – Present (In Post-Production)

- Conceived all project elements in collaboration with historian David D. Plain of the Aamjiwnaang First Nation.
- Wrote a successful grant application, scouted locations, organized shoot, and assisted with filming.
- Partnering on team video editing using Adobe Premiere Pro.

Gaawiin Ogiibagidenaawaasiwaawan / They Did Not Let It Go (Gallery Exhibition)

Co-Curator, Museum London | London, ON

July 2020 – September 2020

- Collaborated on the gallery layout for an exhibit marking the 25th anniversary of the Ipperwash Crisis.
- Selected wampum belts and wrote corresponding didactics in collaboration with knowledge keepers.
- Interviewed, transcribed, and edited interviews and stock photos with family and community members.
- Designed a series of maps explaining treaties, “Aboriginal title,” and original place names, in consultation with knowledge keepers and Anishinaabemowin language speakers.

The Ipperwash Beach Walk (Locative Documentary)

Researcher | Filmmaker | Designer, Public Visualization Lab, OCAD University | Toronto, ON

2015 – 2018

- Built new relationships with project stakeholders, including the Chief & Council of the Kettle & Stony Point First Nation, the Kettle Point Elder's Lodge members, and local historians.

- Co-designed innovative counter-mapping content through multiple focus group sessions with Chief & Council and community members, with a goal of the oral history dovetailing with the archival research.
- Translated new content into interactive maps with the assistance of a design team.

Ogimaa Mikana Project (Place Name Database)

Graduate Research Assistant, Public Visualization Lab, OCAD University | Toronto, ON

April 2018 - May 2018

- Consulted with Knowledge Keepers and mined local, regional, provincial, and Internet archives to locate texts and maps listing the original place names for Toronto in the Anishnaabemowin and Iroquois languages.
- Constructed a detailed database in Excel for use in mapped walks around downtown Toronto.

The Ipperwash Park Film Project (Educational Documentary)

Researcher | Producer | Director | Camera | Editor, Klippensteins Barristers & Solicitors | Toronto, ON

July 2005 – January 2012

- Conducted 2,000 hours of meticulous land claims research in collaboration with a legal team, and translated research into storyboards and scripts for 20 historical recreations or reality-based scenes.
- Designed and built all sets and props and designed, sewed or purchased all wardrobe pieces.
- Booked locations, obtained release forms, and successfully ensured project remained within budget.
